

CLARK COUNTY R-1
EMERGENCY BOARD MEETING
November 4, 2020

The Clark County R-1 Board of Education met in an emergency session on Wednesday, November 4, 2020 at 7:00 pm, at the high school library at 680 East Main St. in Kahoka, Missouri. Mark Plenge, Board President called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm.

Members present: Mark Plenge, President, Craig Hunziker, Treasurer, Charles West, Doug James, and Heather Webster. Via Zoom : Jason Acklie and Kevin Ross.

Administration present: Dr. Ritchie Kracht, Superintendent, Jason Harper, Megan Wendling, Katrina Nixon, Betsy Parrish and Ethan Allen. Jason Church joined via Zoom.

Guests: Mike Scott, The Media Ronda Kirchner, Martha Irvin, Laura Hauck, ARdith haRmon, Cheyanne Loebach and Joe Vineyard.

Dr. Kracht presented to the Board the current COVID cases that are impacting our district. There are currently 170 students and 11 staff members that are currently under quarantine. With these current numbers, Dr. Kracht presented to the Board for consideration to move the middle school and high school students to orange. Orange means that the students would be divided into red and gray, based on the custodial parents last name, A-K will attend on red days, L-Z will attend on gray days. This will start on Friday, November 6, with red day.

This will mean no change for students at the Indian Pride Learning Center, Running Fox Elementary, and Black Hawk Elementary schools.

Motion was made by Charles West, seconded by Heather Webster to go orange for Middle and High School students with increased mask usage at the younger levels starting Friday, November 6th.

Aye 7.        Nay 0.

Motion was made by Charles West, seconded by Heather Webster to adjourn the meeting.
